Join Team WIN Recruiting NOW (Van Nuys)

At WIN, we believe in WIN-WIN situations - veterans excel in rewarding careers as aviation mechanics!

About Warriors In Need:

Warriors In Need (WIN) a Non-Profit organization, in partnership with Western Jet Aviation (WJAA), a Standard Aero company, is dedicated to providing veterans with a meaningful career in Aircraft Maintenance, Repair, and Overhaul (MRO Technicians). We offer tooling, mentorship, coaching, and support to help veterans successfully complete the Western Jet Aviation Academy (WJAA) and transition into civilian aviation careers. Get Started

Career Opportunity:

- The Western Jet Aviation Academy (WJAA) offers a transformative career path in aviation mechanics, structured into two dynamic phases.
- Phase one: Comprehensive 90-day blend of classroom and hands-on basic training. Candidates are employed by Standard Aero during this phase and earn $25-$30 per hour based on their background and experience.
- Phase two: Engaging On-the-Job Training (OJT) under expert guidance. Candidates continue to be employed by Standard Aero and receive the same pay rate.
- Upon completion, candidates with approximately 18 months for Airframe or 30 months for both Airframe and Powerplant can apply for licensure, with sponsorship opportunities provided.
- Ongoing mentorship and support from WIN throughout the program and beyond.

Don't miss out on this opportunity!

Apply now to join our Aviation Mechanics Career Academy and start your journey towards a rewarding career in the aviation industry.
